

RESEARCH AWARD PROGRAM

APPLICATION & APPLICATION GUIDELINES

SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION

The Hypersomnia Foundation is pleased to offer research awards to support and recognize medical students, physician residents and fellows, postdoctoral fellows, and other researchers investigating idiopathic hypersomnia (IH). Applications are accepted on a rolling basis to support various projects, such as conference travel stipends and research internships/externships. On average, awards of $1000-$5,000 will be made, along with honorable mentions. Awardees will be expected to produce a written summary of their findings at the conclusion of the funding period. (Awardees not complying with this requirement will not be eligible for future funding.)

- Awards are intended to encourage and support individual scientists and educators who are working in the field of IH.
- The Brief Research Description in this Award Application will be used to understand the innovative nature and potential impact of the Applicant's HF research/project.
- Awards may be used for travel, books, supplies, etc. in support of Awardee's research/project. If the Awardee is affiliated with an institution that mandates payment of indirect costs, a maximum of 10 percent of the total grant may be used for this purpose. Any general office supplies or individual institutional administrative charges (such as telephone, other electronic communication, utilities, IT network, etc.) are considered to be part of indirect costs.
- Please note that the content of your application will be treated in accordance with the same ethics and confidentiality as that of an NIH scientific review.
- Awards will be made in US dollars.

Consent for Use by Hypersomnia Foundation

By your signature below, you give permission to the Hypersomnia Foundation (HF) to utilize any results of your research that is funded through the HF Research Award Program. This includes, but is not limited to, use of the results in any displays, brochures, electronic newsletters, websites, journals, and any other medium now known or later developed, without any obligation to pay any royalties or fees. You also give your permission to the HF to use your name, image and likeness in connection with any report or summary of your research data or results, whatever the medium. Should there be any commercial or governmental interest in any of your data or research results, you agree that HF shall be entitled to a 10% share of any net revenue (meaning gross royalty income less all reasonable and actual out-of-pocket costs including expenses incurred by the Awardee's institution ("Institution") in pursuing patent or other statutory rights) received by such Institution for licensing the use of data or research results to a commercial or governmental entity. The sharing of any revenue shall be subject to any rights or obligations such Institution may have to the U.S. government or other third party.
